Carmel-by-the-Sea, The Early Years (1903-1913)

Carmel-by-the-Sea, The Early Years (1903-1913) describes the establishment of Carmel-by-the-Sea, California, along with an overview of the history of the Carmel Mission and the Monterey Peninsula. The book's emphasis is on the development of Carmel as a Bohemian artists' and writers' colony at the start of the 20th century. The town's first decade of existence is described: the businesses and services offered, and the residential architecture. There are biographies of the well-known writers and artists who lived there, including Jack London, Robert Louis Stevenson, and Julia Morgan. The book also includes information on the town's history, culture, and community, as well as the natural history of the region. The Carmel-by-the-Sea, The Early Years (1903-1913) is a valuable resource for anyone interested in the history of this unique coastal community.
