Between Two Worlds - Zainab Salbi - 2008-08-17
Zainab Salbi was eleven years old when her father was chosen to be Saddam Hussein's personal pilot and her family's life was gratified onto his. Her mother, the beautiful Alia, taught her daughter the skills she needed to survive. A plastic smile. Saying yes. Burying in boxes the horrors she glimpsed around her. "Learn to erase your memories," she instructed. "It can read eyes." In this richly visual memoir, Salbi describes tyrants as she saw them - through the eyes of a privileged child, a rebellious teenager, a violated wife, and ultimately a public figure fighting to overcome the skill that once kept her alive: silence. Between Two Worlds is a riveting quest for truth that deepens our understanding of the universal themes of power, fear, sexual subjugation, and the question one generation asks the one before it: How could you have let this happen to us?

Two Worlds: Above and Below the Sea - David Doublot - 2021
The ocean covers more than seventy percent of our planet, and yet we rarely glimpse its depths - and especially its exquisite beauty as documented by legendary photographer David Doublot. His work in and on water has set the standard for decades. In this remarkable and highly-anticipated collection by artist and dire... of the Bible and the Oral Law, the role of women, assimilation, the value of secular culture, and Israel. Sometimes they agree; more often they disagree—and quite sharply, too. But the important thing is that, as they keep talking to each other, they discover that they actually like each other, and, above all, respect each other. Their journey from mutual suspicion to mutual regard is an extraordinary one; from it, both Jews and non-Jews of all backgrounds can learn a great deal about the practice of Judaism today and about the continuity of the Jewish people into the future.

One People, Two Worlds - Ammiel Hirsch - 2009-09-08

After being introduced by a mutual friend in the winter of 2000, Reform Rabbi Ammiel Hirsch and Orthodox Rabbi Yosef Reinman embarked on an unprecedented eighteen-month e-mail correspondence on the fundamental principles of Jewish faith and practice. What resulted is this book: an honest, intelligent, no-holds-barred dialogue involving virtually every “hot button” issue on which Reform and Orthodox Jews differ, among them the existence of a Supreme Being, the origins and authenticity of the Bible and the Oral Law, the role of women, assimilation, the value of secular culture, and Israel. Sometimes they agree; more often than not they disagree—and quite sharply. The importance of their discussions is that, as they keep talking to each other, they discover that they actually like each other, and, above all, respect each other. Their journey from mutual suspicion to mutual regard is an extraordinary one; from it, both Jews and non-Jews of all backgrounds can learn a great deal about the practice of Judaism today and about the continuity of the Jewish people into the future.

Challenging the predominant belief that people with Alzheimer’s no longer have purpose, potential, or the capacity for meaningful relationship, Where Two Worlds Touch is both a spiritual memoir and a pastoral guide for those who love someone with Alzheimer’s. Readers will find here the reassuring words of a friend who has been there and can give advice on preserving connection, finding hope, self-care, and staying open to the possibility of grace. “Every chaplain, theologian, caregiver, and healthcare professional can find profound truth captured on each page of Where Two Worlds Touch. This is a beautiful book and the deepest I have read on the topic.” - Stephen G. Post, author of The Moral Challenge of Alzheimer Disease

Where Two Worlds Touch - Jade C. Angelica - 2013-12-26

Jade Angelica shares the wisdom and hope she gleaned from caring for her mother and from many years working closely with Alzheimer’s patients and caregivers. The Kindred Chronicles: Between Two Worlds - D.A. Chan - 2015-06-12

“CHAN HAS CREATED A FABULOUS NEW WORLD FOR SCI-FI LOVERS TO EXPLORE BETWEEN TWO WORLDS BY D.A. CHAN IS A GRIPPING AND DESCRIPTIVE TALE.” - FOREWORD REVIEWS “DEATHLESSNESS HAS CONSEQUENCES. In Chan's case, it is his allegiance to the Dawebringers - one of the ruling houses of the ancient city of Demos Geras, whose daughter he has grown to love. But there is a traitor from the capital, one whose plans involve the murder of the ruling houses to plunge all of kindredkind into war. Born to kindred nobility, Elline's life is one of duty and responsibility; and her betrothal to the Magister of Demos Geras might prove to be the saving grace in the coming chaos. But when she becomes responsible for Chris' death and life thereafter, she cannot deny her growing affection for him as well. With imminent danger ahead, Chris must choose to either pursue his love for Elline or preserve the peace between man and kindred, while Elline must decide to fulfills her vow to the Council before her feelings for Chris cause her to forsake her birthright. "Chan expertly brings to life the strange world of the kindred people with their own manipulation emotions or space and time and blade dancers that use the wind to sense the smallest detail of their surroundings, battle scenes are rife with detail and excitement." - FOREWORD REVIEWS "A fantasy that incorporates elements of romance and straightforward action with consistently punchy prose. Chronicles is a good bet for hardcovers fantasy fans and offers interesting moments for aficionados of other genres as well." - BLAUIKING "The concept of Between Two Worlds is rather innovative as a combination of the fantasy and romance genres with a hint of political drama." - PORKLAND BOOK REVIEW "The constant time jumps through the first half of the book keep me on my toes I look forward to reading from Mr. Chan in the future." - SAN FRANCISCO BOOK REVIEW
